

neo LIVE Dashboard Scripts

1. Earned Points Circle

- The blue inner ring refers to points earned in the neo Study App.
- The outer yellow/green ring refers to points earned during the coaching sessions.
- If both rings are filled: Great job! You are earning points using your study app and by having these coaching sessions. Keep up the good work!
- If the yellow/green ring is behind the blue ring: How often do you have coaching sessions? You need to have more coaching sessions to keep up with your study progress. Recommended: a minimum of 1 session every 2 weeks)
- If the blue ring is behind the yellow/green ring: You need to study more often in your neo Study App. How many times per week do you study? (Recommended: 4-5 times a week) How long are your study sessions? (Recommended: 25-30 minutes)

2. Earned Points per Week

- The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- Grey bars indicate that the student is performing below their goals. Green bars indicate that the learners are at goal or have exceeded the weekly goal.
 - Now = total points earned this current week (starting from Sunday until today)
 - W1 = total points earned during the last full week

- iii. W2 = total points earned during the two weeks ago
- iv. W3 = total points earned during the three weeks ago
- c. If there are green bars: Good job! You have reached your goal set for the week.
- d. If there are grey bars: It looks like you have not met the goal for the week. You need to use the study app more frequently and earn more points.

3. Goal Progress Circle

- a. Based on the number of weeks the student has studied and their expected earned points. This represents the student's overall goal progress.
- b. A 'thumbs up' and yellow and green dial = good progress.
- c. A grey dial = the student is not studying efficiently.
- d. Green dial: Great job! You are on track to earning your goal. Good luck!
- e. Grey dial: Unfortunately, this grey dial means that you are not studying enough to maintain your goal. You should study more and use the REPEAT, RECORD and SPEAK buttons.

4. Comprehension

- a. This refers to how well the learner answered questions in the study app.
 - i. Now = total points earned the current week. (starting from Sunday until today)
 - ii. W1 = total points earned during the last full week.
 - iii. W2 = total points earned during the two weeks ago.
 - iv. W3 = total points earned during the three weeks ago.
- b. The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- c. Grey bars indicate that the learner is not reaching their weekly goals. If they have reached or exceeded the weekly goal, then the bar will be green.
- d. Green bar: Good job! You are answering the app's questions correctly./You have been answering the Comprehension Check questions correctly./You have a high percentage of correct answers. Stay focused and keep up the good work!
- e. Grey bar: It looks like you're not answering the questions accurately. /You have more incorrect answers than correct ones./ How often are you studying? Please pay closer attention to the questions before you answer them./If you have a chance, try to review previous lessons.

5. Pronunciation

- a. This refers to how well the learners are being recognized when they pronounce sentences.
 - i. Now = total points earned the current week (starting from Sunday until today)
 - ii. W1 = total points earned during the last full week

- iii. W2 = total points earned during the two weeks ago.
 - iv. W3 = total points earned during the three weeks ago.
- b. The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- c. Grey bars indicate that the student is not reaching their weekly goals. If they have reached or exceeded the weekly goal, then the bars will be green.
- d. Green bar: Very good! The green bars show that you are being recognized well in your speech recognition activities./You are pronouncing sentences well/very well. Stay focused on your pronunciation! It is very important.
- e. Grey bar: Unfortunately, the grey bars mean that you are not being recognized very well when you pronounce sentences. / Speak slowly when you answer./You need to go back and LISTEN to the previous sentences more. Practice each sentence several times and then try these pronunciation sentences again. Good luck!

6. Listening

- a. This refers to how often the learner clicked on the REPEAT or Listening button.
 - i. Now = total points earned the current week (starting from Sunday until today)
 - ii. W1 = total points earned during the last full week
 - iii. W2 = total points earned during the two weeks ago.
 - iv. W3 = total points earned during the three weeks ago.
- b. The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- c. Grey bar indicate that the student is not reaching their goals. If they have reached or exceeded the weekly goal, then the bars will be green.
- d. Green bar: You're doing well with the REPEAT button. Listening will help you develop better fluency in order to say the sentences later.
- e. Grey bar: Unfortunately, the grey bars show that you should click on the REPEAT button more. You are not meeting your goal for listening, so you have to repeat sentences more.

7. Speaking

- a. This indicates how well the student is recording himself/herself and listening to what is said.
 - i. Now = total points earned the current week (starting from Sunday until today)
 - ii. W1 = total points earned during the last full week
 - iii. W2 = total points earned during the two weeks ago.
 - iv. W3 = total points earned during the three weeks ago.
- b. The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- c. The solid white vertical line represents the goal for each week.
- d. Grey bars indicate that the student is not reaching their weekly goals. If they have reached or exceeded the weekly goal, then the bars will be green.

- e. Green bars: you are at goal (or beyond it). Good job! You are making good progress in recording your voice and listening to yourself. Keep it up!
- f. Grey bars: you are not at goal in your Speaking practice. You simply have to record yourself more and take the time to also listen to what you said. This will help you develop your fluency.